

Dear Sirs: It is my opinion that has been formed over the last 37 that a separate CW-narrow bandwidth sub band is a positive for efficient, eloquent communications. I understand that the reason for the 60 meter band lies within emergency needs to the southern islands and South America. These needs would be better served via diverse modes and consequent sub-banding would enhance efficiency.

Sincerely Thomas Popovic KI3R Port Vue Pa.